Primitive art

Used here to denote art produced outside the traditions of the art of Europe, the Mediterranean area, and Asia. That is, the art of the Negro peoples of sub-Saharan Africa; of the inhabitants of the islands of the Pacific Ocean, Australia and some areas off the coast of Southeast Asia

Does not include "primitive" or "naive" artists who, while seemingly untutored, work in the traditions of European folk art or easel painting

History of printmaking

Including collections of prints in book form and works on wood and metal engraving treated jointlyHere are included engravings (and facsimiles) noteworthy for their age, method of execution, or artistic excellence, but not works in which the process of reproduction is secondary in interest to the works of art thus representedFor engravings of masterpieces of painting, see ND, unless the works are by very notable engravers, in which case prefer NE501+For engravings of drawings, outline sketches, caricatures, etc., by famous artists (one or several), see NCCertain subjects are to be classed independently of the method of reproduction. For example, see N7720 for Dance of Death; see NE218+ for portraits
